

Runaway and Homeless Youth Program (RHY)

- Description: Administered by the Family and Youth Services Bureau, RHY provides grants to local organizations to support runaway and homeless youth. The program offers services such as emergency shelters, transitional living programs, and street outreach to connect youth with resources and prevent exploitation.
- Runaway and Homeless Youth Program \(RHY\)

Children, Youth, and Families at Risk (CYFAR) Program

- Description: Managed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's National Institute of Food and Agriculture, CYFAR supports community-based programs that promote positive development for at-risk children, youth, and families. The program focuses on providing resources and education to enhance life skills and well-being.
- Children, Youth, and Families at Risk \(CYFAR\) Program

Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) Programs

- Description: OJJDP offers various programs aimed at preventing juvenile delinquency and improving the juvenile justice system. Initiatives include mentoring, gang prevention, and support for children exposed to violence.
- Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention \(OJJDP\) Programs

YouthBuild USA

- Description: YouthBuild USA offers a 10-month program for individuals aged 16-24 who have not completed high school. Participants receive stipends and housing while constructing homes for low-income and homeless individuals in their communities. The program provides job skills training, assistance in earning high school diplomas or equivalency degrees, counseling, and support for transitioning into further education or employment opportunities.
- YouthBuild USA

Big Brothers Big Sisters of America

- Description: This organization provides one-on-one mentoring relationships to help at-risk youth achieve their full potential. Volunteer mentors offer guidance, support, and positive role modeling to children facing adversity.
- Big Brothers Big Sisters of America

Boys & Girls Clubs of America

- Description: The Boys & Girls Clubs offer after-school programs focusing on academic success, healthy lifestyles, and character development. They provide a safe environment for at-risk youth to engage in educational and recreational activities.

- Boys & Girls Clubs of America

The Trevor Project

- Description: The Trevor Project is a national organization providing crisis intervention and suicide prevention services to LGBTQ+ youth. They offer free, confidential counseling and support through various platforms.
- The Trevor Project

After-School All-Stars (ASAS)

- Description: ASAS partners with schools nationwide to provide free after-school programs for low-income, at-risk youth. Their programs include academic support, enrichment activities, and health and fitness education.
- After-School All-Stars \(ASAS\)

Child FIRST

- Description: Child FIRST is a home visitation program for low-income families with young children at risk of emotional, behavioral, or developmental problems. The program aims to reduce child maltreatment and improve child development through therapeutic interventions and connecting families to community resources.
- Child FIRST

Youth Assistance Program

- Description: Designed to provide positive guidance to at-risk youth, this program aims to prevent involvement in illegal activities. It offers mentorship and support to help youth make positive life choices.
- Youth Assistance Program

WIOA Youth Formula Program

- Description: The Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) of 2014 enacted a comprehensive youth employment program for serving eligible youth, ages 14-24, who face barriers to education, training, and employment.
- WIOA Youth Formula Program

These programs offer a range of services, including mentorship, housing assistance, educational support, crisis intervention, and recreational activities, all aimed at empowering at-risk youth across the United States.